1 | Welcome Letters

Inside Out Letter

On behalf of our staff and board of directors, we are thrilled to welcome you to our 33rd edition of Inside Out 2SLGBTQ+ Film Festival here in Toronto and online across Ontario. We've been hard at work to bring you the freshest in queer cinema, from respected legends to our filmmaking stars of tomorrow. We can't wait to share the program with you, meet the filmmakers, maybe even finance a film at our 7th edition of the world's only 2SLGBTQ+ Finance Forum.

Since its inception, Inside Out's mission has been to challenge attitudes and change lives through the exhibition, promotion, and production of queer film. We have always advocated for better representation for the 2SLGBTQ+ community in media and for more opportunities for 2SLGBTQ+ people to be the ones to tell their own stories.

Over the next 11 days, we hope you experience the joy in the films, parties, networking events, and through mingling with our invited guests, storytellers, patrons and partners. Inside Out exists because of you. We strive to create and promote a safer and truly intersectional creative space to celebrate our community's resilience.

2023 marks year one of our exciting new three year strategic plan. Guiding the festival to its 35th anniversary in 2025 are five strategic pillars: Programming and Exhibition, Industry Development, Accessibility and Equity, Community Outreach, and Enhancing Organizational Capacity. We have an incredible history at Inside Out and we are grateful to all who have supported, contributed, and attended Inside Out over the past three decades. We can't wait to continue this incredible journey into the future.

See you at the movies.

RBC Letter

On behalf of RBC, welcome to the 2023 Inside Out 2SLGBTQ+ Toronto Film Festival!

For the past 33 years, Inside Out has been challenging attitudes and changing lives as an incredibly important platform for our 2SLGBTQ+ community to tell their stories. And we're excited that the festival will combine in-person and online screenings for a truly inclusive, hybrid experience again this year.

For RBC, supporting the arts has been a longstanding priority as we recognize the role it plays in building strong, diverse, connected communities. We're proud to be entering our 15th year of supporting this festival as Lead Sponsor underscoring the important role Inside Out plays in the Toronto arts landscape.

To all the filmmakers represented this year, congratulations and thank you for inspiring, informing, and connecting us all. We look forward to watching some of the most ground-breaking and thought-provoking 2SLGBTQ+ cinema in the world this spring.

And to the Inside Out Toronto team of staff and volunteers, thank you for your efforts to bring us together every year.

Enjoy!

Kris Depencier
Regional President, RBC
Greater Toronto

Politician Letter - Justin Trudeau

I am pleased to extend my warmest greetings to everyone attending the 2023 Inside Out Toronto 2SLGBTQ+ Film Festival. For over 30 years, this festival has provided a platform for 2SLGBTQ+ filmmakers from across Canada and around the world to share their perspectives and stories. I am sure that audiences will be entertained and engaged by the diverse selection of films being screened this year and that the panels and discussions planned for the next eleven days will stimulate a great deal of meaningful dialogue and exchange.

Canada gets a little bit stronger every day that we choose to embrace and to celebrate who we are, in all our uniqueness.

I would like to thank the festival organizers for their hard work and dedication in planning this year's edition of the festival. You can take pride in your commitment to celebrating Canadian filmmakers and to fostering diversity and inclusion in the screen industry.

Please accept my best wishes for a memorable experience.

Sincerely,

The Rt. Hon. Justin P.J. Trudeau, P.C., M.P.
Prime Minister of Canada

Politician Letter - Pablo Rodriguez

For more than three decades, Inside Out has provided a showcase for the best queer films from Canada and around the world. By championing these unique voices, this celebration has been a leader in building an open, inclusive society where every person has the same opportunity to participate and succeed.

Our government is a proud supporter of the arts across Canada, including this signature event. This year's celebration will have more in-person screenings, while also maintaining its virtual programming, ensuring that everyone has lots of opportunities to enjoy these compelling films. As Minister of Canadian Heritage, I'd like to thank everyone involved in making this year's Inside Out festival such a success.

Enjoy the shows!

Pablo Rodriguez
Minister of Canadian Heritage

Politician Letter - Jennifer McKelvie

It is my pleasure to extend greetings and a warm welcome to everyone attending the Inside Out Toronto 2SLGBTQ+ Film Festival. As one of the largest 2SLGBTQ+ film festivals in the world, Inside Out offers audiences the best in queer film from across the country, while providing support to emerging and established 2SLGBTQ+ filmmakers. I would like to extend best wishes to everyone participating in this hybrid festival, as it celebrates its 33rd anniversary this year. Thank you to Inside Out for being a strong advocate for the queer community through film.

I am thrilled that the Inside Out 2SLGBTQ+ Film Festival is taking place in Toronto. Events like this represent the wonderful diversity in our city. The arts are an integral component of Toronto's cultural and economic fabric that enrich and enhance the lives of many. Arts and culture can be incredible forces for the development of an individual, group or community, and they promote intercultural connections including understanding, friendship and social cohesion.

On behalf of Toronto City Council, please accept my best wishes for an enjoyable event and continued success.

Jennifer McKelvie
Deputy Mayor of Toronto

Politician Letter - Kristyn Wong-Tam

It brings me so much joy that Ontarians across our province can enjoy wonderful Queer cinema with Inside Out in Toronto, Ottawa, and virtually! Inside Out has grown so much over the past 33 years. I am proud to have been a supporter since its inception – first as a small business owner in the Village, then as a City Councillor, and now as Ontario's first openly non-binary Member of Provincial Parliament.

It is my firm belief that while strong communities and good public policy keep us safe, so too does great art. Seeing stories that reflect your experience can be life-saving. Seeing stories of identities different from your own can build lasting bridges of understanding. Not to mention the amazing jobs that queer films create, especially for 2SLGBTQIA+ workers. I will always fight for robust arts funding to keep our film scene vibrant and our communities doing inspiring work.

Congratulations to the staff, volunteers, members, and donors who make this incredible festival possible.

Happy film-festing!

Kristyn Wong-Tam
MPP, Toronto Centre

2 | About Inside Out

In addition to bringing Toronto's 2SLGBTQ+ community together in celebration of the best queer film from Canada and around the world for more than three decades, Inside Out also challenges attitudes and changes lives with the following initiatives:

Ottawa Film Festival

An annual fall festival of local, national and international films. The Festival presents upwards of 25 diverse films, both shorts and features, made by and about 2SLGBTQ+ people of all ages, races and abilities and offers special events including artist Q&As and parties.

International Finance Forum

Inside Out's International Finance Forum (IFF) is the first and only 2SLGBTQ+ finance forum of its kind in the world. Marking its seventh edition, the Forum provides 2SLGBTQ+-identified producers, writers, and directors creating 2SLGBTQ+ content an opportunity to move their feature projects forward through professional development, mentorship, and the platform to pitch their projects directly to top international industry executives and decision-makers.

RE:Focus Fund

Established in 2018, Inside Out's RE:Focus Fund aims to address industry inequities through providing direct financial support to women, non-binary, and/or trans filmmakers telling 2SLGBTQ+ stories. Founded through a lead gift from Martha McCain, the fund has distributed more than $200,000 in festival travel grants, post-production funds, and professional development programs for filmmakers since its creation.

Pitch, Please!

Competitors present a short, two-minute pitch to a jury and audience, with one winner taking home a $5,000 production grant. The competition takes place during Inside Out's Toronto Festival and includes presentations from filmmakers from around the world.

outACTRAto: Queer Your Stories

Presented in partnership with outACTRAto, the annual Queer Your Stories: Short Film Competition is open to queer ACTRA Toronto members and provides one winning team financial and in-kind production support and an Inside Out screening of the completed work.

Inside Out Exclusives

Inside Out works with the 2SLGBTQ+ film community to bring exclusive previews, special presentations, events, and conversations to Inside Out audiences throughout the year. In the months leading up to the 2023 Toronto Festival, Inside Out curated Ace Hotel's screening series, 'Shorts In Conversation,' inviting filmmakers to discuss their films and the craft of translating thoughts into moving images.

Out on Set

Out On Set is a database for North American 2SLGBTQ+ film & television crew and creative talent. Out On Set is a joint initiative created and developed by OUTtv and Inside Out to connect production companies, agencies, and networks to queer and trans talent within the screen industry.

The Library

The Library is a resource for youth, educators, and community organizations across Canada to access 2SLGBTQ+ short films and customized, accompanying educational materials.

In-Person Tickets & Box Office Info

To purchase memberships, ticket packages and tickets, or to redeem a ticket package for in-person screenings, visit our box office anytime at insideout.ca/boxoffice. During the festival dates, visit the Inside Out Festival Box Office at TIFF Bell Lightbox, 350 King Street West. The Inside Out Festival Box Office is open every day of the festival, two hours before the first screening of the day. All major credit cards accepted. Contact boxoffice@insideout.ca for ticketing assistance.

Digital Tickets

To purchase single digital screening tickets, ticket packages for digital screenings, or to redeem a ticket package for digital screenings, visit our box office anytime at insideout.ca/boxoffice. As films premiere each day in-person, they will be added to the digital platform the following day at 12:00PM for viewers across Ontario and remain available until June 4th at 11:59pm or the view cap is reached. All single tickets for digital screenings are valid for 48 hours after you press 'Play.' The Digital All-Access Pass allows for one viewing of all films on the digital platform, for one household.

Digital screenings are geo-blocked to Ontario only. You must be in Ontario to access digital programming. Digital screenings will be available for select films screening in-person therefore not every festival film will be available digitally.

Reel Access

Inside Out is committed to improving accessibility for all audience members by identifying, removing, and preventing barriers. The Reel Access discount is available for BIPOC folks, students, seniors, under-waged patrons, and patrons living with disabilities. Valid for all in-person and digital screenings during the 2023 2SLGBTQ+ Film Festival. We are soliciting captions or full subtitles for all 2023 programming, depending on content that is provided. For more information on accessible ticketing or to inquire about Reel Access discounts, email boxoffice@insideout.ca.

Screening Accessibility

All festival films screening at TIFF Bell Lightbox will be accompanied with open captions or English subtitles (all languages will be subtitled in English, including English for both in-cinema and digital screenings). ASL will be available by request. All festival films screening via Cinesend will have the option to enable captions.

Ticketing, Venue, and Box Office Accessibility

All festival films screening at TIFF Bell Lightbox will be accompanied with open captions or English subtitles (all languages will be subtitled, including English). ASL will be available by request. All festival films screening via Cinesend will have the option to enable captions.

Ticketing, Venue, and Box Office Accessibility

All our venues are wheelchair accessible. All our venues welcome service animals, guide dogs, and a support person accompanying anyone with a disability.

Inside Out offers a discounted Reel Access 6-Pack ticket package available to BIPOC folks, students, seniors, underwaged patrons and patrons living with disabilities. Valid for regular in-person and digital screenings during the 2023 Inside Out Film Festival. Must be in Ontario to view digitally. Digital screenings will be available for select films screening in-person therefore not every festival film will be available digitally.

BIPOC folks, students, seniors, underwaged patrons and patrons living with disabilities are eligible for a 15% discount on in-person and digital screenings.

Passages begins with German filmmaker Tomas meticulously crafting a scene. He requires perfection to be satisfied and when the slightest error occurs, he loses his temper. After the film wraps, Tomas' desire for control seeps into his personal life. Unsatisfied in his long-term marriage with Martin, Tomas launches into an impulsive sexual affair with a young woman named Agathe. When their one-night stand grows into something more, the two men are left to wonder if their crumbling marriage can survive. The latest work by acclaimed filmmaker Ira Sachs follows three people caught in a love triangle marked by passion, jealousy, and narcissism.

RE:Focus Gala: Kokomo City

Director: D. Smith

USA | 2023 | 73:00

Date: Sat. May 27, 7:00p

Venue: TIFF Bell Lightbox Cinema 1

Through conversation and laughter, D. Smith presents the stories of four Black transgender sex workers in New York and Georgia. These women offer unapologetic and unfiltered reflections on belonging and identity within the Black community and beyond. Dreams and memories, past lives and new beginnings, battles fought and won are openly shared. D. Smith, a Grammy-nominated artist, creates a unique and exhilarating soundtrack that matches the protagonists' energetic personalities and the film's striking black and white visuals. Kokomo City is a vibrant portrait of a community tired of stigmatization and ready to take ownership of their stories.

Centerpiece Gala: Supporting Our Selves

Director: Lulu Wei

Canada | 2023 | 75:00

Date: Tues. May 30, 6:45p

Venue: TIFF Bell Lightbox Cinema 1

Screening Sponsors: Andrew Mainprize & Philip Kocev

Founded in 1980 as the Gay Community Appeal, Community One Foundation has from the start raised funds for an array of community projects and organizations, with the organization and its name evolving along with the community itself. What started as a predominantly white, middle-class collective redefined itself during the AIDS crisis in the 1980s and '90s and continues to adapt today to better meet the needs of our Toronto communities. Supporting Our Selves is a moving exploration of more than four decades of activism, told through the lens of the Toronto-based philanthropic organization.

Director: Tom Gustafson

Screenplay: Cory Krueckeberg

USA | 2023 | 110:00

Date: Sat. June 3, 7:15p

Venue: TIFF Bell Lightbox Cinema 1

When carefree Glitter and aspiring musician Doom meet it is love at first sight. But as Glitter prepares to live out his dream of running away with the circus, the two have only 29 days to discover if their love will last. Their journey is told through song lyrics by the Indigo Girls, featuring some of their greatest hits, including the iconic anthem "Closer to Fine." Starring Alex Diaz, Alan Cammish, Lea DeLaria, Missi Pyle, Tig Notaro, and the Indigo Girls themselves, Glitter & Doom is a fantastical summer romance with a big musical heart.

Venue: TIFF Bell Lightbox Cinema 1

An eight-year-old child struggles with the fact that people keep addressing her in confusing ways; her birth name feels very wrong, and her nickname Cocó doesn't feel quite right either. During a summer in the Basque Country among the beehives, she explores her name and identity alongside her mother and the women of her family, who are also reflecting on their own lives and desires. Much like a beehive, 20,000 Species of Bees examines a space predominantly run by women, exploring with great care the incredible complexity of gender identity.

Special Sneak Preview: Chestnut

Director: Jac Cron

USA | 2023 | 87:00

Date: Mon. May 29, 9:15p

Venue: TIFF Bell Lightbox Cinema 3

After graduation and a hard breakup, Annie is ready for a new life and a new city. She plans to spend the summer packing up her apartment and saying goodbye to friends, but a chance meeting with an alluring duo makes Annie begin to question her decision to leave. They quickly become entangled in a precarious love triangle, filled with toxic habits and unspoken words. Chestnut, director Jac Cron's feature debut, is a slow-burning exploration of the desire to belong and the pain of loneliness. Natalia Dyer, Rachel Keller, Danny Ramirez, and Chella Man come together to create this intimate character study with great empathy and sincerity.

Director: Jeffrey Schwarz

USA | 2023 | 115:00

Date: Sat. May 27, 2:00p

Venue: TIFF Bell Lightbox Cinema 2

Screening Sponsors: Gilead, Marcus Law

In the early 1980s, a young doctor at UCLA reported a strange immune disorder among gay men — the world's first warning sign of the epidemic to come. In the decades that followed, Hollywood played a critical role in the battle against HIV/AIDS as doctors, movie stars, studio moguls and activists came together to change the path of the epidemic and how the world saw it. Commitment to Life documents this incredible drama — Rock Hudson and Easy-E, Elizabeth Taylor and David Geffen, the Red Ribbon, Philadelphia, ACT UP and APLA — through the stories of those who lived through it.

Through Facebook groups and online searches, she sets out to find if there really is anybody like her out there. Using intimate video diary entries, conversations with similarly bodied people and doctors treating her condition, Ella invites viewers to question their assumptions about normalcy while exploring what it takes to love oneself fiercely despite the pervasiveness of ableism.

It's Only Life After All

Director: Alexandria Bombach

USA | 2023 | 123:00

Date: Sat. June 3, 4:00p

Venue: TIFF Bell Lightbox Cinema 1

Amy Ray and Emily Saliers began performing together in high school, well before entering the mainstream as the acclaimed folk-rock duo, Indigo Girls. Against all odds they broke through in the 1980s, maintaining musical careers on their own terms with an unwavering commitment to progressive politics and queer rights. This commitment stands to this day with their continued fight for environmental justice through their work with Indigenous activist Winona LaDuke. Blending more than three decades of home movies, archival footage, and intimate present-day verité, It's Only Life After All is a timely look into the life lessons of two famous queer friends who never expected to make it big.

Gena, a queer artist from a small town in Russia, dresses in otherworldly costumes and protests the government on the streets of Moscow. Born and raised on the harsh streets of Magadan, a frigid outpost of the Soviet gulag, Gena stages radical performances that become a new form of art and activism. By doing so, she hopes to change people's perception of beauty and queerness and bring attention to the harassment of the LGBTQ+ community. The performances — often dark, strange, evocative — are a manifestation of Gena's subconscious...and they come at a price.
